

50 YEARS OF UGANDAN ASIANS

In 1972, brutal dictator, Idi Amin expelled all Asians from Uganda, forcing over 60,000 people to flee for their lives. Over 27,000 came to Britain in search of new homes and new jobs. Discover stories of those who escaped Amin's regime 50 years ago and settled in York through this emotive, engaging and award-nominated exhibition which was commissioned by Uganda50 York and produced by Navrang Arts.

Speakers: Shamim Eimaan, Fazila Zannar and Yogesh Joshi

As part of Refugee Week
The Uganda50 York exhibition is coming to:
